Old business

Novice Trips Committee

Brandy Riggs stated that the first quarter trip will be a restoration trip to Cleveland Cave on Feb 25th and 26th.

Grotto Apparel

Pic Walenta stated that we have no new fund raisers currently. We still have plenty of Grotto apparel and she said that she will set be selling Grotto apparel at the "Year of the Bat" gathering at Onondaga State Park in April.

The Guano

Bill Gee reports that the latest issue of the Guano was published two weeks ago. He can still use articles for the next issue.

New Business

Vertical workshop 2012

Cyle Riggs stated that the workshop will be held this spring or summer and possible locations include Swope Park or the cliffs at Truman Lake. Bill Gee stated that he would be willing to help organize and help. Sam Clippinger suggested that Monster Mountain (indoor climbing gym) or the climbing tower at the Girl Scout camp. Cyle said that he would rather target a location with rocks and trees in order to better simulate actual rigging conditions.

MCKC Cleanup of Goodwin sinkhole

Brandy Riggs stated that the MCKC needs cash donations to offset costs for the Goodwin Sinkhole cleanup that has just started. She said that she was making soup for the volunteers. Jim Cooley added that an 8-12' tall fence should be built on top of a berm around the sinkhole in order to prevent future trash dumping. Rick Hines made a motion that the Grotto donate $100.00 to the MCKC to assist the Goodwin Sinkhole cleanup. Bill Gee seconded, and the motion was passed unanimously.

Activity Reports

Scouting

Sam Clippinger said we now have approval from the HOAC to add KCAG / caving information to their website. Heidi Fletcher volunteered to draft a paragraph to insert into their website, and present it to the Grotto for our approval.

Hickory County Project

Gary Johnson reports that the Index (Hickory Co. newspaper) ran an article on the Hickory County Project in their November, 2011 issue. He passed around several copies for our review. Gary said he was pleased with the article. He gave a report on bushwhacking and surveying activities in December and January. He announced a landowner trip to Elkton Cave on April 7th, 2012.

Carroll Cave Conservancy Report

Bill Gee announced that he has submitted the 2011 stream flow reports and they appeared normal with no large flow events. He said the next annual meeting will be on 7/14/12.

Missouri Speleological Survey Report

Jim Cooley announced that he attended the Jan 24th MSS meeting in Rolla and presented four new MO Speleo issues. He reports there is much current activity in this group.

Missouri Caves & Karst Conservancy

Jim Cooley spoke again on the Goodwin Sinkhole cleanup project and said there are no current plans for a fence around the sinkhole and that this would be a crucial part of the project.

Meeting Minutes

Cyle Riggs stated that if any subjects discussed at our Grotto meetings are confidential, then he and I (Matt Kuehnert) must be made aware so that information is not included in the published minutes.

State of KCAG website

Cyle expressed a desire to improve the current KCAG website. He has already added a calendar of events and plans to keep them updated. Brandy stated that the text / background colors should be changed in order to be more legible.
